All recent versions of popular browsers give you a level of control over cookies. You can set your browser to accept or reject all, or certain, cookies. Please be aware that some areas of our website may not function after you have changed your cookie settings.

WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA WITH?

Insofar as they are necessary for the purposes defined in this policy, your Personal Data may be shared internally with other Members, Members of the Governing Bodies and Committees and employees of CHINALUX.

Certain of your Personal Data may be shared externally when necessary to achieve the purpose for which they have been processed, with the following entrusted third parties:

- Our processor for payment purposes based in Luxembourg;
- Our accounting and tax service provider based in Luxembourg;
- Our event management service providers based in the European Economic Area ("EEA ") as well as in the US ;
- Our service providers in the organisation of events (e.g. catering, venue management, communication agencies etc.).

These entrusted third parties may be required to receive or have access to some of your Personal Data in different ways, each according to their roles, in line with the purposes specified above and within the limits set by the applicable law. When needed, we stipulate processing agreements with such third parties so to ensure the maximum protection of your Personal Data.

We may also transferred, when required, your Personal Data to the local public authorities such as the Luxembourg Business Registers, to our lawyers, to the public bailiffs, to the police etc., in order to comply with the legal or regulatory requirements to which we are subject or to assert our rights or exercise them in Court.

→ Events with other Business Partners

From time to time, we may organise events with Business Partners so as to co organise joint events. The organisation and follow up of these events may entail the processing and sharing of your Personal Data both by us and the co-organiser. In this context, you will be informed by both of us as joint data controllers on how and for which purposes your Personal Data are processed, in conformity with the applicable legislation.

WHICH COUNTRIES DO WE TRANSFER YOUR PERSONAL DATA TO?

Your Personal Data will not in principle be transferred to a third country outside the EEA or an international organisation.

However, in the event that it would be necessary for the purposes defined in this policy, we may have to transfer your Personal Data to countries outside the European Economic Area, which may not offer the same level of data protection as the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. Some of these countries, such as the US, are subject to an adequacy provision by the European Commission and the transfer of data to such countries is in principle safe.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We commit to keeping your Personal Data only for the period necessary for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy.

In determining this period, we take into account the following criteria:

- the requirements of applicable data protection laws;
- the duration of the applicable legal prescription;
- the purposes of the processing involving your data and whether and for how long the processing of your data is necessary to serve such purposes;
- our legal obligations to keep certain information for a minimum period.

In particular, we will for example apply the following time limits:

- books and accounting documents will be retained for a period of 10 years from the end of the financial year to which they pertain;
- data concerning non retained potential Members will be retained for a maximum period of 1 year after the rejection of the candidature;
- data concerning Members will in principle not be retained after a period of 2 years following :
 - the non-payment of its annual fee,
 - its leave or its exclusion from the association.

- data processed on the basis of your consent will not be kept by Us in the event you withdraw your consent.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

The GDPR provides you with specific rights according to the legal basis on which CHINALUX bases the processing of your Personal Data.

In this context, you have:

- A right of access: you have the right to obtain confirmation on whether your personal data are being processed or not. When this is the case, you have the right to access the personal data which are processed by CHINALUX.
- A right of rectification: you have the right to obtain rectification of inaccurate or incomplete information about you that is processed by CHINALUX.
- A right to the erasure of your data: you have the right to obtain the erasure of your Personal Data in the following situations: (i) your data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which we collected them; (ii) you withdrew your consent where the processing is based on consent and there is no other legal basis for such processing; (iii) you object to the processing of your Personal Data and there is no compelling legitimate reason justifying the processing; (iv) the data is subject to unlawful processing; (v) the data must be erased due to a legal obligation.
- A right of opposition: you can oppose the processing of your Personal Data in two situations: (i) where the processing concerned is based on your consent, in which case you can oppose such processing without having to provide any particular reasons; (ii) where the processing is based on the legitimate interests of CHINALUX, you can oppose it for reasons related to your particular situation, unless we are able to demonstrate that there are legitimate grounds and imperative reasons for such processing which prevail over your interests, rights and freedoms, or else for the verification, exercise or defense of our rights in Court.
- A right to limitation of the processing of your data: you have the right to suspend processing of Personal Data while a verification is being carried out (verification of the accuracy of information, of the legal basis of processing, and of the legitimate reasons that CHINALUX opposes to their erasure).
- A right to request the transfer of your data to another provider. This right applies when the processing is based on your consent or the performance of a contract, and is performed using automated processes.

If you have any additional questions or would like to file a complaint about the processing of your Personal Data, you can contact CHINALUX. at the email address E-: privacy@china-lux.lu .

Finally, the GDPR provides you with the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority. In Luxembourg the competent authority is the National Commission for the Protection of Data (Commission Nationale pour la Protection des Données) (<https://cnpd.public.lu/fr.html>).
