Amanda Yeung is a seasoned executive with over two decades of experience in financial services, corporate strategy, and international business development. She currently serves as Luxembourg Country Manager and European Regional Manager at dtcpay Group, a regulated digital payment company headquartered in Singapore. In this role, she drives the company's strategic expansion across Europe and leads global licensing initiatives in key jurisdictions including Hong Kong, Australia, Canada, the United States, the UAE, and several Southeast Asian countries. Her cross-border leadership ensures dtcpay remains at the forefront of compliance, innovation, and market entry strategy in the rapidly evolving digital payment ecosystem.

Prior to this, Amanda spent over 16 years at EY Luxembourg, where she held senior leadership roles including Director of Business Development and Head of the Chinese/Asian Business Services Desk. At EY, she spearheaded client development initiatives, oversaw multi-service line projects, and served as a trusted advisor to Chinese and Asian investors in Europe. Her earlier career includes key positions at HSBC and PwC in Hong Kong, further enriching her expertise across both private and institutional sectors.

Amanda served on the ChinaLux Executive Board from 2013 to 2023, including as Vice President, Treasurer, and Steering Committee Member. She played a vital role in the Chamber's growth and governance, contributing to its treasury management, regulatory compliance, operational structure, and member engagement strategy. Her longstanding involvement reflects her dedication to fostering China-Luxembourg economic and cultural ties.

She is a Fellow of ACCA and GARP, a member of the Institut Luxembourgeois des Administrateurs, and is fluent in English, Mandarin, and Cantonese, with basic knowledge of French and Luxembourgish. She holds dual nationality: Luxembourgish and Chinese (Hong Kong SAR).

31. Zhou (Damon) Lujun

Senior Manager, Deloitte Luxembourg

Lujun (Damon) Zhou is a seasoned finance and accounting professional with 10 year working experience. He currently serves at Deloitte Luxembourg as a Senior Manager, where he coordinates China desk of Deloitte, advising multinational clients on cross-border investment and local development & compliance. Damon has deep expertise in accounting, risk management, and strategic finance, specializing in supporting Chinese enterprises investing in Europe and European firms exploring opportunities in China. As a senior finance executive responsible for Chinese market clients, Damon leverages his extensive experience advising Chinese and European firms on accounting, Luxembourg funds, and financial compliance regulations.

Prior to his current role, Damon worked at Deloitte China, where he accumulated extensive experience in serving Chinese clients, gaining a profound understanding of their business needs and expectations – an advantage that sets him apart among Luxembourg colleagues. As the Luxembourg contact for Deloitte's Global Chinese Services Group, Damon has a strong capacity to mobilize both local and domestic resources to support CHINALUX initiatives and its members' needs, particularly in financial advisory, tax compliance, and cross-border investment strategies.

Over his career, he actively connects China-EU business communities through networking events and knowledge-sharing seminars. Damon's work – from helping Chinese enterprises navigate Luxembourg's financial landscape to engaging European investors in Asia – reflects CHINALUX's mission of promoting China-Luxembourg trade and cultural ties. His multicultural perspective, shaped by professional experience at Deloitte China and local expertise in Luxembourg, combined with a proven track record in international finance, positions him to contribute effectively to CHINALUX's strategic initiatives.

Damon is CFA, ACA, CIA as well as a Chinese Certified Public Accountant.
